Thousands of accounting and auditing professionals rely on the GFOA's Annual Governmental GAAP Update for a comprehensive and practical overview of all of the major developments in accounting and financial reporting during the past year that affect state and local governments, with special emphasis on the activities of the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB). Specific topics that will be addressed at this year's teleconference include:

- Intangible assets (new GASB statement)
- Fund balance and definitions of governmental fund types (GASB exposure draft)
- Derivatives (GASB exposure draft following previous invitation to comment)
- Pension disclosures (new GASB statement)
- Financial statement elements (new GASB concepts statement)
- Real estate holdings of endowment funds (new GASB statement)
- Recent implementation guidance (recent changes to the GASB's Comprehensive Implementation Guide)
- Common reporting deficiencies and practice clarifications (based on experience in the GFOA's Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting Program)
- GASB Technical Plan

Stephen J. Gauthier is the Director of the Technical Services Center for the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada. He is responsible for the GFOA's Certificate of Achievement and Budget Awards programs and has authored many GFOA publications, including the Governmental Accounting, Auditing, and Financial Reporting (GAAFR); Evaluating Internal Controls; and several titles in the GFOA's Elected Official's series. Gauthier also serves as the editor of the GFOA's GAAFR Review newsletter and is a regular instructor at the GFOA's national training sessions.
