GOVERNMENT FINANCE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

Government Finance Review

For more than a century, the GFOA has been dedicated to enhancing the professional management of governments for the public benefit. Membership includes more than 17,600 state and local government finance officials and other public finance specialists.

These finance professionals look to Government Finance Review to learn about a broad range of public finance topics in the following areas:

- Accounting, Auditing, and Financial Reporting
- Budgeting and Financial Planning
- Capital Finance and Debt Management
- Retirement and Benefits Administration
- Technology and the Internet
- Treasury and Investment Management

Government Finance Review publishes articles in the forefront of the public finance profession, touching on topics such as performance measurement and performance management, new accounting and auditing standards, strategic budgeting, groundbreaking technology for government finance, innovations in public investing and debt management, and the expanding role of the government finance officer in areas such as economic development, disaster management, and change management. With each issue, the magazine explores best practices in the realm of government finance, suggests solutions to questions facing public finance officers, reports the latest news in governmental accounting, examines intergovernmental affairs, and provides the latest information in the field.
