

About the GFOA. Since 1906, the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) has been the premier professional organization serving the education and career development needs of over 17,300 government officials and finance practitioners in the United States and Canada.

GFOA provides current information, extensive training, a range of products, as well as consulting services to individuals and organizations involved in public-sector finance. Our goal is to build skills, enhance performance, recognize achievement, and advance the careers of our members.

For more information about the GFOA and how we might be of service to you, please check your areas of interest and return this post card today.
