About the Program

The GFOA's Canadian Award for Financial Reporting Program has been promoting the preparation of high quality financial reports since 1986. More than 40 governments participate in the program each year. All participants are Canadian municipal governments that follow the standards promulgated by the Public Sector Accounting Board.

Better Financial Reports

The Canadian Award for Financial Reporting Program is specifically designed to encourage Canadian governments to prepare and issue financial reports of the highest quality. Top-quality financial reporting is essential if governments are to be fully accountable to their citizens and to others with an interest in the government's finances.

Better Financial Reports

The Canadian Award for Financial Reporting Program actively strives to assist participating governments to achieve the goal of preparing top-quality financial reports. Program participants benefit from access to a wealth of technical material specifically designed to help them comply with program requirements. They also profit from a thorough confidential review of their financial report by experts and experienced reviewers who are professionals in the field of accounting, auditing, and financial reporting for Canadian governments.

To recognize governments that prepare...

Better Financial Reports

The Canadian Award for Financial Reporting Program allows the public finance profession a welcome opportunity to recognize those governments that have, in fact, succeeded in preparing a high quality financial report. This recognition can be viewed as a positive factor by citizens, investors, and by others interested in the professionalism of a government's finance function.
