GAAFR REVIEW

The most effective way to keep current on developments in governmental accounting and financial reporting

GAAFR Review is a subscription newsletter that covers major breaking developments in accounting, auditing, and financial reporting for state and local governments. Over the past quarter century, accounting and auditing professionals have come to rely upon GAAFR Review for timely and practice-oriented summaries of the latest guidance from the Governmental Accounting Standards Board. They also have come to appreciate the wealth of practical guidance that it offers from month to month on a variety of ongoing issues and challenges.

All net proceeds from subscriptions to GAAFR Review are contributed to the GFOA's Government Accounting Research Foundation, which is dedicated to improving the quality of financial reporting for state and local governments.

$50 annually for active members • $60 annually for associate members • $85 annually for nonmembers

Time-saving resource for local government finance officers and treasurers

Treasury Management is a monthly electronic subscription newsletter focused on treasury and cash management for local governments. Each issue is designed to save you time by compiling the information that you need in a simple, condensed format. There are articles by both industry experts and public-sector professionals who understand the challenges government treasury and investment management officials face, the issues you need to keep up on, and the hot topics you need to know about. In addition, each issue of Treasury Management summarizes all the investment performance and interest rate data that are most relevant to you, putting the numbers you need in one place for easy reference.

Each month, subscribers receive an e-mail message with a link that automatically opens the new issue. Subscribers also receive free online access to more than 125 previous issues.

12 issues/year: available in electronic format only
$55 annually for active members • $70 annually for associate members • $85 annually for nonmembers
